Lucas Bros. Make Low Bid On Army Building

Bids were opened here in Honolulu at 9 o'clock and in San Francisco at 11 o'clock this morning for the construction of the new Fort street Army warehouse. Lucas Bros. and the Huestace-Peck Company were the local bidders, the former underbidding the latter company by about $8000. Word has not yet been received from the Coast as to the amounts submitted there, but Jack Lucas stated this morning that he felt pretty confident that his company would not be underbid on the proposition.

The new building, which will have the Quartermaster Captain's office, and various other Army offices, will be a three-story reinforced concrete building, L-shaped, with a 60-foot frontage and about 160-foot depth. It will be constructed just opposite the old Clock-Tower building.

The following are the amounts of the local bids, opened this morning:

Huestace-Peck Co.—Construction, $63,095; plumbing, $2915; wiring, $1980. Total, $67,990.

Hawaiian Electric Co.—Wiring, $1384.

Lucas Bros.—Construction, $55,812; plumbing, $1652; wiring, $1384. Total, $58,848.

JAP KILLED WHILE DIGGING FOR WATER

Deputy Attorney General Larnach heard just before he left Maui yesterday that a Japanese had been killed at Waihee while tunnelling into the mountain there for water. Whether or not there was a cave-in, or how the man lost his life, Mr. Larnach did not learn.

KALUA CASE WAS KEENLY CONTESTED

Larnach Returns From Maui—Story Of Trial

Deputy Attorney General Larnach returned from Maui this morning, where he has been prosecuting cases for the Territory. He states that the news that has been received here saying that the jury in the Kalua trial was out two hours is wrong, as the jury was, in fact, out from 5 o'clock in the afternoon until 9 that night. Larnach conducted the prosecution of Kalua without any outside aid, and the statement that Lightfoot was connected in the prosecution is erroneous. From all reports, the fight put up by Larnach for the prosecution and Case and Quarles for the defense was one of the best legal battles that has occurred in this Territory for many a day.

Pleaded Not Guilty

Immediately after Kalua was indicted, he asked time to file a demurrer. The demurrer was filed last Saturday morning. It was argued, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon Judge Kopoikai overruled the demurrer, and the defendant was forced to plead. He thereupon entered a plea of not guilty. The trial was begun on Monday.

JUVENILE COURT LAW PROPOSED

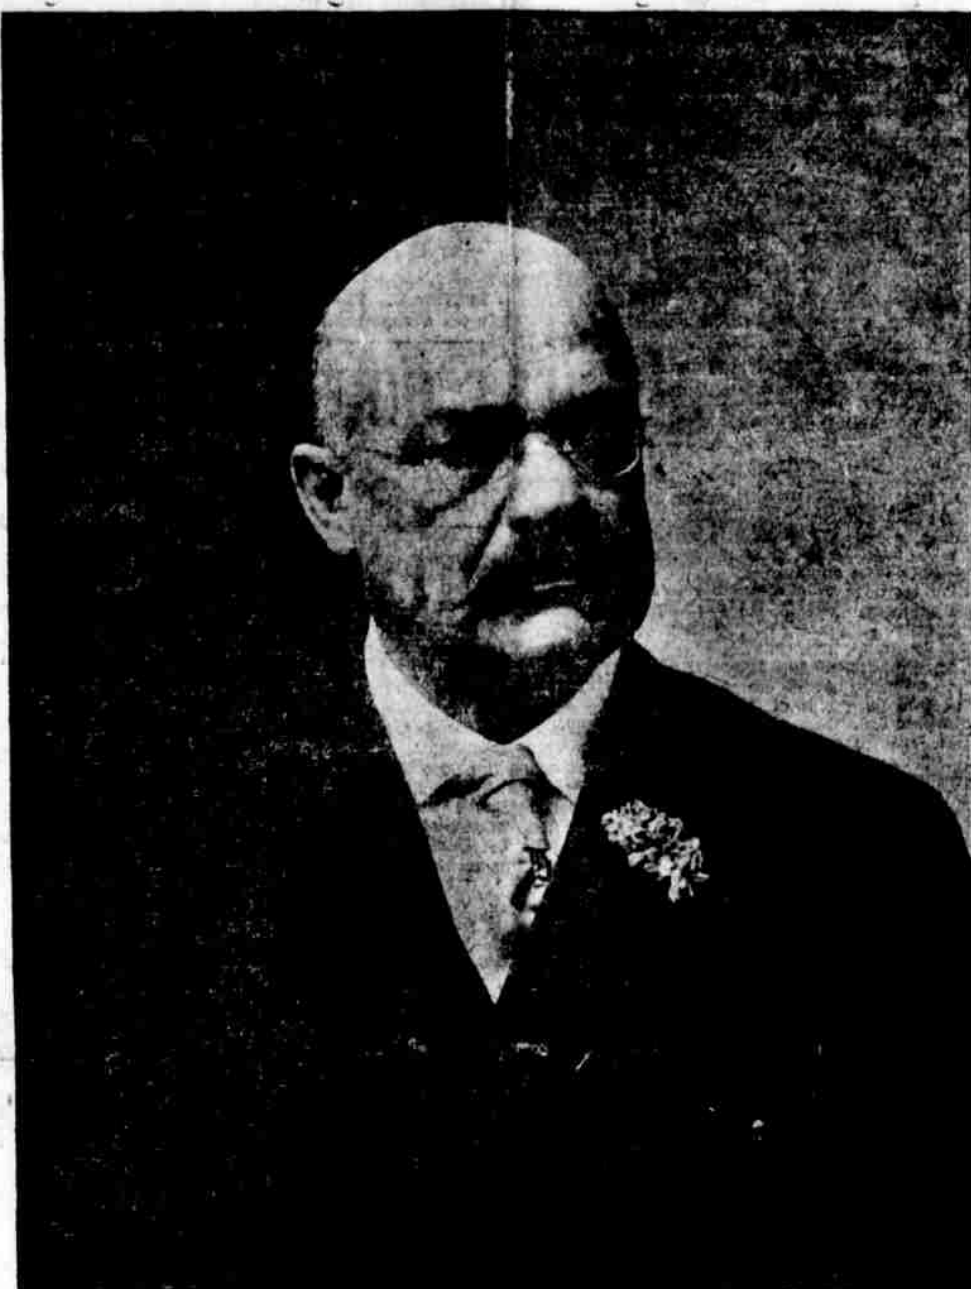

Whitney Is Drafting Law For Youngsters' Tribunal

One of the most important things for the Territory that Governor Frear will probably include in his message to the Legislature will be a recommendation for a juvenile court law. Acting Attorney General Whitney is at present, at the request of the Governor, at work drafting the new law.

The idea will be to establish courts entirely separate from the Police and Circuit Courts, although it is planned to assign one of the Circuit Judges one or two days each week to this work. Juvenile courts, separate from other courts, were made famous by the splendid work of Judge "Ben" Lindsay, who is known as the "Kids' Friend," in reclaiming street waifs and lads in whom the bad tendency had become uppermost.

The Juvenile Court will handle all cases of those under the age of 18 years. This matter of Juvenile Courts has been spoken of tentatively several times before, but Governor Frear has taken the first decisive step in having the law drafted.

TOTAL OF $100,000 IN LIBELS IS NOW FILED

JOHN W. CATHCART
Republican Candidate for City and County Attorney, Who Has Filed Libels Totaling $100,000, Against the Paper Attacking His Character

John W. Cathcart this afternoon filed his fifth libel suit against the Hawaiian Gazette Co. and Walter G. Smith, the amount of damages asked for being $20,000, making a total of $100,000 for the five suits. The libel in this case is based on the charge made of embezzling costs in the Chilton case.

The complaint sets forth the same preamble as in the former cases, and recites the libelous article, which was published on Tuesday, Oct. 20, as follows:

"Embezzled Costs in One Case—Withheld Elections in Another. Two More Striking Instances in the Career of a Legal Beast of Prey—More Reasons Why J. W. Cathcart Should Be Defeated and Disbarred. Eighth Charge—Four years ago, his son having been arrested on a criminal charge, indicted by the grand jury, and convicted in the Circuit Court, William R. Chilton, the Hotel Street barber, and a man well known in Honolulu, retained J. W. Cathcart to bring the matter before the Supreme Court on appeal.

"Mr. Chilton paid Mr. Cathcart a retainer fee of fifty dollars, and further gave him forty dollars to be used as court costs and the cost of transcribing the evidence for the bill of exceptions, this being the amount asked for by Mr. Cathcart for such costs.

"Relying on the promises of Mr. Cathcart, Mr. Chilton rested assured that the matter of an appeal was being attended to, his son meanwhile being at liberty on bonds.

"The time during which an appeal might be perfected passed, and young Chilton was arrested on a bench warrant and taken to jail to serve his sentence.

"Mr. Chilton protested against the arrest of his son, stating that the case was on appeal in the Supreme Court. He was informed, however, on inquiry at the office of the court officer, that the appeal had been noted but never perfected; that Cathcart had paid in no money collected by him for court costs, and had done nothing to

RALLY AND PARADE MONDAY Will Sail Tomorrow

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha Hongkong Maru will sail for San Francisco tomorrow morning at 5 o'clock, with mail for the mainland.

Mrs. Mary Atcherley spoke from the soap box today and was frequently applauded. Speaking from the medical point of view, she stated that the Hawaiians would be best represented in the Legislature by Hawaiian candidates, with hale lawyers to see to the legality of any measure that might come up.

Her speech was principally based on leprosy matters, saying that if her bill relative to the appointment of school physicians had been introduced in the House by Representative Alawa without being altered by Kaniho, it would have been one of the best things for the Hawaiians. She also denounced the Wallace committee, particularly John C. Lane and Chan K. Noley. For mayor she favored J. Fern.

Tonight's Republican meetings will be held at Pauoa Valley and at Niolopa. At Pauoa, addresses will be made by the candidates for Representatives from the Fourth District, while other Republicans will take charge of the Niolopa meeting.

Republican workers are bending all their energies toward getting up a striking and impressive parade and rally Monday night. The plans are very far advanced, and only the minor details are wanting to make the torchlight procession and rally at Aala.
